

REPORTING AND ASSESSMENT FRAMEWORK OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE TERMS OF REFERENCE

Approved by the PRI Board in September 2023

1. CONSTITUTION

- 1.1 The PRI Association Board (the Board) has established an ad hoc committee of the Board, known as the Reporting and Assessment Framework Oversight Committee, with terms of reference as set out below.
- 1.2 The Articles of Association of PRI Association (the Articles) state that Directors may: (i) constitute committees to facilitate the workings of the Board; and (ii) may, if they choose, delegate any of their powers to those committees on the basis set out in the Articles.
- 1.3 All committees constituted in accordance with Articles must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by the Directors.
- 1.4 The terms of reference of, and any delegation of executive power by the Board to, a committee must be recorded in the Board's minutes.
- 1.5 The Directors may revoke or alter a delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.
- 1.6 As instructed by the Articles Directors must specify in writing the terms of reference (including such conditions as they see fit) of each committee in accordance with the Articles.
- 1.7 No rule, policy or terms of reference will be inconsistent with anything contained in the Articles, but in the event of any inconsistency, the Articles will prevail.

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1 The Board committee's purpose is to provide oversight of the development of the new PRI Reporting and Assessment Framework, including: the objectives and purpose, within the wider context of signatory reporting requirements; the development of the 'content' and its strategic alignment; key signatory communications; and the IT infrastructure, and related governance, risks, and dependencies, to be able to provide independent input and advice to the PRI Board when required.
- 2.2 The committee is an ad hoc committee and the expectation is that the committee will cease to operate in 2023 with the completed roll-out of the new Reporting and Assessment Framework, or when the board consider that the committee is no longer necessary.
- 2.3 The committee's responsibility and authority covers the entire PRI Association and any joint ventures that may be entered into.

3. DUTIES

- 3.1 The committee shall oversee the development of the new PRI Reporting and Assessment Framework for the PRI Board, and associated duties include (but are not limited to):
 - 3.1.1 reviewing reports from the PRI Executive and relevant external parties on the progress of the development of the new framework, including 'content' development and strategic alignment, project governance, risk management, dependencies, and resourcing;
 - 3.1.2 reporting to the PRI Board on the progress of the development of the new framework;

- 3.1.3 providing recommendations to the PRI Board with regards to the development of the new framework;
- 3.1.4 meeting with signatories as appropriate on the Reporting and Assessment framework; and
- 3.1.5 providing guidance to the PRI Executive on the development of the new framework with the aim of delivering a successful new framework in 2023.

4. COMPOSITION
